

PROFILE

Pianist extraordinaire Jerome Clay is a truly gifted pianist. After completing his training and receiving a BA degree from the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, Jerome returned to San Francisco to pursue his career as a professional pianist.

Jerome has performed in leading five-star hotels and other venues throughout the Greater Boston area and in the San Francisco Bay, area including over six years at the Leatherneck Steakhouse inside the Marines' Memorial Club & Hotel in San Francisco's Union Square District. Beginning January 2025, Jerome returned to the Marines' Memorial Club's newly name Chesty's Bar & Grill and performs every Friday & Saturday from 5:00-8:00 pm.
